

Would you like to meet new friends, get to know Newcastle or improve your English?

Some of our volunteers become befrienders and regularly visit families in their homes. One of our families has this to say about their befriender:

“I now have a wider range of friends from different backgrounds. She is always prepared to help with any problems. I feel less isolated, and have a better knowledge of the North East. My English has improved, I feel more confident to do things on my own.”
